Superintendent Report:

Discussion held about the budget. The 35% over expenditures that was waived was rescinded by Governor Burgum. Schools have had meetings with DPI relating to the budgets and monies that were not spent when school was closed in March.

Professional days for the new school year will be August 3rd and 4th for the PhabLab. August 13 and 14 there will be PD for the elementary math instructors. The 18th will be for the HS math instructors. August 19th will be Blue Cross, Horace Mann, Aflac, etc.

Staff will be doing a book study. Distance learning comments by staff were favorable.

June 16th will be online webinar for everyone for safety of staff and students in the coming year.

Melichi Four Bear accepted Athletic Director.

High School Principal:

Ten of ten students graduated. Graduation went well. All students for next year have been scheduled for their classes. Would like to provide more academics for students. Working on Profile of a Graduate. Working on curriculum based on recommendations from the Literacy audit. Google classrooms will be used at both schools.

Teachers are apprehensive about calling parents at both schools.

Elementary Principal:

Schoolwide Title application has been submitted. Elementary has a continuous plan for school improvement. Strategic map is ever changing and updated. For the next school year some key objectives include stakeholder engagement, behavior expectations, MTSS, and Schoolwide reform. Have met with teachers about layout options.

Will be attending virtual NDCEL Conference.
